

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Zofia Bobak
DOCKET NO.: 18-39782.001-R-1 through 18-39782.004-R-1

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Zofia Bobak, the appellant(s), by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

18-39782.001-R-1	19-09-200-001-0000	9,375	2,835	$12,210
18-39782.002-R-1	19-09-200-002-0000	3,125	8,221	$11,346

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 50-year-old, two-story, mixed-use building of frame construction with 5,711 square feet of building area. The subject property has four Property Index Numbers (PINs). Features of the building include three full bathrooms, one half bathroom, and central air conditioning. The property has a 9,375 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-12 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five suggested equity comparables. The appellant provided evidence in the form of a board of review decision that showed the total assessment of 19-09-200-001-0000 to be $2,835, the total assessment of 19-09-200-002-0000 to be $8,221, the total assessment of 19-09-200-003-0000 to be $10,206, and the total assessment of 19-09-200-004-0000 to be $7,087 for a total improvement assessment of $28,349 or $4.96 per square foot of dwelling area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing an improvement assessment of $12,210 for PIN 19-09-200-001-0000. The board of review did not submit information regarding the remaining PINs which were the subject of the appeal. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales and four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #3 and #5 and the board of review comparable #2. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $3.92 to $6.03 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $4.96 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
