

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark A Silich
DOCKET NO.: 18-40393.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-13-418-007-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark A Silich, the appellant(s), by attorney Andrew S. Dziuk, of Andrew Dziuk, Esq. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,500
IMPR.: $42,229
TOTAL: $49,729

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 115-year-old, one-story, single-family dwelling of frame construction with 1,173 square feet of living area. The dwelling features include: a full basement, air conditioning, one fireplace as well as a two-car garage. The property has a 3,125 square foot site and is in Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03, residential property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables. They are improved with a one-story, frame, single-family dwelling. The improvements ranged in age from 110 to 125 years and in size from 1,097 to 1,405 square feet of living area. The improvement assessments ranged from $29.57 to $31.47 per square foot.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosed data indicating the total assessment for the subject property was $49,729. This reflected an improvement assessment of $42,229 or $36.00 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. They are improved with a frame, one-story, single-family dwelling. The improvements ranged in age from 107 to 115 years and in size from 1,199 to 1,443 square feet of living area. The improvement assessments ranged from $36.00 to $38.33 per square foot.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #2 and #3 as well as the board of review's comparables #2 and #3. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $29.81 to $36.45 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $36.00 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record.

Based on this record and after making pertinent adjustments, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
