

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Melinda & Daryl Ziemke, the appellants; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
18-41926.001-R-1	02-03-105-026-0000	11,815	3,379	$15,194
18-41926.002-R-1	02-03-105-014-0000	5,903	0	$ 5,903
18-41926.003-R-1	02-03-105-015-0000	5,903	0	$ 5,903

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved single-family owner-occupied residence that is located in Palatine Township, Cook County.

The appellants appealed to the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming the subject property was inequitably assessed and overvalued. The appellants timely filed evidence in support of these claims. Subsequently, the appellants filed an amended appeal petition claiming the subject's assessment was incorrect based on a contention of law. Specifically, the appellants submitted a legal brief citing section 16-185 of the of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). Based on the statutory mandates provided in section 16-185 of the of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) the appellants requested the Property Tax Appeal Board carry forward its prior year's decision. The record shows the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision pertaining to the subject property for the prior tax year under Docket Number 17-21045.001-R-1 through 17-

21045.003-R-1. In that appeal, the Board rendered a decision lowering the subject's assessment to a total of $27,000. The appellants asserted the subject property was an owner-occupied residence and that tax years 2017 and 2018 are within the same general assessment period.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $23,714 was disclosed for only Parcel Number 02-03-105-026-000. The board of review noted the appellants have complied with the requirements of the Illinois rollover statute. However, the board of review did not offer to stipulate to a reduced assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellants contend the subject's assessment was incorrect based on a contention of law. Unless otherwise provided by law or stated in the agency's rules, the standard of proof in any contested case hearing conducted under this Act by an agency shall be the preponderance of the evidence. (5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellants met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellants argued the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision for the 2017 tax year should be carried forward to the 2018 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The record shows the subject property was the matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior tax year under Docket Number 17-21045.001-R-1 through 17-21045.003-R-1. In that appeal, the Board issued a decision lowering the subject's assessment total assessment to $27,000.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code provides in relevant part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period (Emphasis Added) as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

The Board finds section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) is controlling in this matter. Based on the statutory mandates of section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds its decision for the 2017 tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent 2018 tax year as matter of law. The Board finds the evidence in the record shows the subject property is an owner-occupied residence and the 2017 and 2018 tax years are within the same general assessment period for Palatine Township. There is no evidence in the record showing that the subject property subsequently sold in an arm's-length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board was reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision of $27,000. Therefore, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
