

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Amanda Shackleton
DOCKET NO.: 18-42179.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-08-220-043-1001

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Amanda Shackleton, the appellant(s), by attorney Mary Kate Gorman, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,557
IMPR.: $42,608
TOTAL: $45,165

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a residential condominium unit contained in a 130-year-old, three-unit, three-story, residential condominium building of masonry construction. Each unit is designated by a Property Index Number (PIN). The subject is PIN 1001. The property is situated on 3,575 square feet of land in West Chicago Township, Cook County. It is a Class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested comparable sales.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $45,165. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $451,650 when applying the 2018 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted a condominium analysis with information on suggested comparable sales for one unit in the building, PIN 1003. This unit sold in 2018 for a total consideration of $1,050,000. The unit sold comprised 41.30% of the common elements of the building. The result was a full value of the property at $2,542,372. Since the subject owned 18.70% of the common elements, the suggested the market value of the subject was $475,424.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the board of review comparable sale(s) #1. This comparable property sold for $1,050,000 and was similar with the subject in that it was contained in the same building and shared many property characteristics. In contrast, the appellant's suggested properties were in different buildings than the subject and, to the extent they disclosed key property characteristics with which to make meaningful comparisons, they were dissimilar with the subject. Moreover, the suggested market value based on the board of review's analysis is above the subject's market value suggested by the total assessed valuation. Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
