

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Man Tang Xu
DOCKET NO.: 18-42973.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-28-417-030-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Man Tang Xu, the appellant(s), by attorney Ciarra Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $16,500
IMPR.: $51,219
TOTAL: $67,719

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of three improvements. One improvement is a 130-year-old, two-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction with 2,300 square feet of building area. Features of the building include two full bathrooms and a full basement. The other two improvements are coach houses. The property has a 3,750 square foot site located in Chicago, South Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five suggested equity comparables. They were improved with a two-story, multi-family dwelling of either masonry or masonry and frame construction. Based on this evidence, the appellant requests a total assessment for each parcel of the subject property of $59,139.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $67,719. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $51,219, or $22.27 per square foot of building area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three suggested equity comparables. Each were improved with a two-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

In appellant's brief, the appellant disclosed the subject property consists of an apartment building and two coach houses. However, no evidence is provided as to the square footage of the coach houses. In addition, neither party submitted comparables that included any coach houses. The Board finds the comparables submitted by both parties too dissimilar to the subject property. As a result, the Board is unable to establish a range for determining assessment equity. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
