

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Belkin
DOCKET NO.: 18-43018.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-06-112-054-1004

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Belkin, the appellant(s), by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,896
IMPR.: $49,104
TOTAL: $53,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 123-year-old, condominium unit in a building with five condominium units. The property has a 4,414 square foot site with 1,700 square feet of living space and is located in West Chicago, Chicago Township, Cook County. Ownership in the common elements is 19.4%. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts assessment inequity as a basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted five suggested equity comparables. The comparable properties are multi-family dwellings classified as class 2-11 properties. The comparable properties range: in age between 103-125 years; between 1,716-1,760 square feet of living space; in improvement assessment between $30,092-$42,997; and improvement assessment per square foot between $18-$25.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $53,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $49,104, or $28.88 per square foot. The board of review submitted four comparable properties that are all in the same building as the subject property. The comparable properties range in improvement assessment between $47,332-$61,000. The board of review did not provide the living square footage of the comparable properties.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The comparable properties submitted by the board of review do not contain descriptive information such as living square footage, number of bathrooms, number of bedrooms, or other comparable features for the Board to determine their similarity to the subject property. The comparable properties submitted by the appellant are too dissimilar to the subject property in that all comparable properties are apartment buildings whereas the subject property is a condominium unit. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
