

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Elena LaGiglio
DOCKET NO.: 18-43465.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-33-203-015-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Elena LaGiglio, the appellant(s), by attorney Brian S. Maher, of Weis, DuBrock, Doody & Maher in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,750
IMPR.: $23,750
TOTAL: $37,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 2,256 square feet of living area. The subject is owner-occupied. Features of the dwelling include two and one-half baths, a full unfinished basement and air conditioning. The dwelling was constructed in 1999. The property has a 3,125 square foot site and is located in Chicago, South Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted evidence showing that the subject sold on July 28, 2016 for $375,000. In support, the appellant submitted a copy of the settlement statement. The appellant's pleadings regarding Section IV- Recent Sale Data confirmed that the parties to the transaction were not related; the subject was advertised for sale using a realtor and listed on the MLS. Lastly, the appellant requested that the Board apply the 10% level of assessment as determined by the Cook County Classification Ordinance. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $37,500.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessed value of the subject property as $50,883. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $508,830 or $225.55 per square foot of living area including land, when applying the 2018 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested sale comparables. The board of review's evidence confirmed the sale of the subject in 2016.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property on in July 2016 for $375,000. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had the elements of an arm's length transaction disclosing that the parties to the transaction were not related, that the property was sold using a realtor, and that it was advertised for sale on the open market. In support of the transaction, the appellant submitted copies of the settlement statement. Based on this record, the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $375,000 as of January 1, 2018.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
