Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 13-year-old building with 14 condominium units. The property has a 13,206 square foot site and is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal form indicates an inequity appeal, but the appellant submitted evidence and a brief making a market value argument. Specifically, the appellant submitted a market value analysis based on the sale of five units within the subject building that sold after 2015. Appellant's sales have a combined total of 35.630% and a market value of $2,626,000. The appellant argued that a 10% should be deducted from the total sale to account for personal property. After making that adjustment, the appellant found the total value for the subject of $6,633,174.29.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $714,569. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $7,145,690 when applying the 2018 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted the sales of four condominium units. No descriptive information was provided for these sales other than square footage of the units. They sold from March 2016 to May 2018 for prices ranging from $461,000 to $485,000. With the exception of the sale of the unit with PIN ending in -1008, board of review's suggested comparable sales are identical to the appellant's.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be all of the appellant's comparable sales, and the board of review's comparable sales. The Board gives no weight to the deduction for personal property as there is no evidence to support this. Dividing the total sale price by the percentage of ownership of this sold unit of 35.63% arrives at a value for the building of $7,370,193. The subject's current assessment reflects a market value of $7,145,690 which is below the value as established by the sales. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant did not show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued, and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
