Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 17-year-old, 16-unit residential condominium building. The property has a 7,696 square foot site and is located in South Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four suggested comparable sales.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject units with PINs ending from -1001 to -1016 of $27,009, $28,146, $32,945, $37,199, $27,207, $27,207, $33,786, $33,786, $27,207, $27,207, $33,786, $33,786, $28,048, $27,207, $37,199, $32,945, respectively. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $270,090, $281,460, $329,450, $371,990, $272,070, $272,070, $337,860, $337,860, $272,070, $272,070, $337,860, $337,860, $280,480, $272,070, $371,990, and $329,450, respectively, when applying the 2018 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

The board of review's evidence reflects the sale of subject units with PINs ending in: -1001 in 2015 for $290,000; -1004 in 2015 for $369,000; -1008 in 2018 for $392,000; -1014 in 2017 for $280,000; -1015 in 2017 for $375,000; and -1016 in 2018 for $360,302.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium analysis estimating the market value of the subject based on the 2015 to 2018 sales of six of the subject units. Based on the percentage of ownership of those units, the board of review found the full value of the entire building. Multiplying each subject unit's percentage of ownership by the full value of the building, the board of review found the market value for each unit.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value for the subject units with PINs ending in -1001, -1004, -1008, -1014, -1015, and -1016 to be the reflective sales that range in sale date from 2015 to 2018 and sale price from $280,000 to $392,000.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value for the rest of the units to be appellant's comparable sales #1, #2, #3, and #4, and the board of review comparable sales #1, #2, #3, #4, #5, and #6. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $280,000 to $392,000 per unit. The subject units' assessments reflect market values within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
