

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rohan Sundaralingan
DOCKET NO.: 18-46107.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-06-430-067-1003

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rohan Sundaralingan, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,891
IMPR.: $50,574
TOTAL: $54,465

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

Appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 10-year-old condominium unit, with 1,900 feet of square living area, located in a 3-unit condominium building on a 3,250 square foot site, in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject has a 35.22% ownership interest in the common elements. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

Appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, appellant submitted the sales prices of seven comparable sales. The seven units sold between June 2016 and June 2018 for prices ranging between $505,000 and $650,000, or $221.00 to $267.00 per square foot of living area. The percentage of ownership was not provided for any of the comparable properties, and none were located within the subject's condominium building.

Appellant deducted 10% from each sale price for personal property. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $45,890.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" depicting a total assessed valuation of $54,465. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $544,650 when applying the 2018 statutory level of assessment for class 2 property of 10.00% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The subject's market value reflects a sales price per square foot of $286.66. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted a condominium analysis showing that one unit in the subject's building, with 32.39% of ownership in the common elements, sold in August 2006 for $535,000. The board of review calculated a total market value for the building of $1,651,744.

Conclusion of Law

Appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the board of review's sale comparable in the same building as the subject property as well as the sales comparables submitted by appellant. Considering the sale comparable provided by the board of review sold in 2006, which is far removed from the assessment year currently at issue, the Board considered the comparable sales provided by appellant, even though said comparables were not in the same building as the subject property. All of the sales comparables submitted by both parties result in a market value range of $505,000 to $650,000. The subject's current assessment reflects a market value of $544,650, which is within the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board further finds that there was no evidence submitted to show that personal property was included in any of the sale transactions, and that no deduction is warranted for this factor. Based on this record, the Board finds appellant has not proven, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the subject is overvalued, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
