

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Robbie Fisher
DOCKET NO.: 18-47221.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-09-113-017-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Robbie Fisher, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,451
IMPR.: $47,049
TOTAL: $53,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an 11,730 square foot parcel of land improved with a seven-year-old, two-story, frame, single-family dwelling containing 3,260 square feet of building area. The property is located in Palatine, Palatine Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this appellant submitted copies of the multiple listing service (MLS) printout, sales contract, and settlement statement which disclosed the purchase of the subject on March 20, 2017 for $535,000. The settlement statement lists commissions paid to real estate companies. The petition discloses that the transfer was not between related parties, the property with realtor involvement, that the property was advertised for sale on the MLS, and that the sale was not due to a foreclosure. The petition discloses that the subject is an owner-occupied residence. The appellant also submitted and appraisal with an estimated value as of February 3, 2017 of $535,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's total assessment of $58,611 which reflects a market value of $586,110 using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessment for class 2 property of 10%.

In support of the assessment the board of review submitted two comparables. The board of review listed the sale of the subject in March 2017 for $535,000.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in March 2017 for a price of $535,000. The appellant submitted evidence of the sale of the subject. The board of review did not challenge the sale or the arm's-length nature of the transaction and, in fact, included the sale of the subject in its evidence. Moreover, the appraisal submitted also supports the sale at market value. Based on this record the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $535,000 as of the lien date. Since market value has been determined, the level of assessment of 10% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance shall apply and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
