

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Edgar Jannotta
DOCKET NO.: 18-50023.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-08-400-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Edgar Jannotta, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $205,079
IMPR.: $109,921
TOTAL: $315,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 3,406 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 62 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished partial basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has a 46,609 square foot site and is located in Winnetka, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant filed the appeal based on a contention of law contending the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2017 tax year should be carried forward to the 2018 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant's attorney indicated that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board in the previous tax year under Docket Number 17-46103.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $315,000 based on an agreement between the parties. The appellant's attorney asserted that tax years 2017 and 2018 are within the same general assessment period. The Board takes notice that the 2017 tax year appeal decision was based on a 2016 tax year appeal which lowered the subject's assessment to $315,000 based an agreement between the parties.

The Board notes that the appellant marked both "Yes" and "No" on the "Residential Appeal" petition for the question inquiring if the property was an owner-occupied residence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $320,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $114,921 or $33.74 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with 1-story class or 1.5-story class 2-04 dwellings with varying similarity to the subject in age, dwelling size and features. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $140,368 to $225,580 or from $41.64 to $57.55 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

The "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosed that the property had not received a homeowner's exemption during the triannual tax assessment period.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2017 tax year should be carried forward to the 2018 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2017 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Board finds the evidence in the record indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence since the mailing address is the same as the property address and that 2017 and 2018 are within the same general assessment period.¹ The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

¹ The Board issued decisions for tax years 2016 and 2017 based on agreements between the parties. Despite the board of review disclosing the subject's failure to receive homestead exemptions during the triannual tax assessment period, the board of review did not refute the appellant's assertion that the property was owner-occupied.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
