

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: William Stlaske
DOCKET NO.: 19-03585.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-24-252-003

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are William Stlaske, the appellant, by attorney Andrew J. Rukavina, of The Tax Appeal Company in Mundelein, and the McHenry County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the McHenry County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,169
IMPR.: $111,829
TOTAL: $119,998

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame construction with 3,181 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 2001. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a three-car garage. The property has a 10,400 square foot site and is located in Crystal Lake, Grafton Township, McHenry County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $360,000 as of January 1, 2019.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $128,477. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $385,470 or $121.18 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the 2019 three year average median level of assessment for McHenry County of 33.33% as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In response to the appeal, the board of review submitted a letter from the township assessor. The assessor argued the appraiser did a desktop appraisal with no adjustments for the subject property and provided no information on how the appraiser arrived at the estimated market value.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant providing an estimate of market value of $360,000 as of January 1, 2019. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $385,470 or $121.18, which is above the best evidence of market value in the record. Furthermore, the Board finds the board of review failed to present any market value evidence that the appellant's appraised value of the subject was not reflective of market value. Based on this record the Property Tax Appeal Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
