

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Sunset Realty
DOCKET NO.: 19-03934.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-23-317-026

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Sunset Realty, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $56,402
IMPR.: $50,803
TOTAL: $107,205

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of brick exterior construction with 1,446 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1925 and is approximately 94 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, and a 440 square foot garage. The property has approximately a 9,540 square foot site and is located in Highland Park, Moraine Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with a 1.5-story and two, 1.75-story dwellings of wood siding exterior construction that range in size from 1,708 to 2,056 square feet of living area and range in age from 78 to 96 years old. The comparables have unfinished basements and garages ranging in size from 340 to 432 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $53,235 to $64,983 or from $27.90 to $33.18 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $107,205. The subject has an improvement assessment of $50,803 or $35.13 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. Comparables #2, #3 and #4 were submitted and described by the appellant as comparables #1, #2, and #3, respectively. Board of review comparable #1 is described as a 1.5-story dwelling of wood siding exterior construction with 1,371 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 1925 with a full unfinished basement., This comparable has an improvement assessment of $83,683 or for $61.04 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted four equity comparables for the Board's consideration, three of which are common to both parties. The Board gave less weight to board of review comparable #1 which appears to be an outlier due to its improvement assessment being considerably higher than the other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' common comparables which are relatively similar to the subject in location, age and some features. However, these comparables lack central air conditioning and are 18% to 42% larger in dwelling size when compared to the subject. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $53,235 to $64,983 or from $27.90 to $33.18 per square foot of living area. The subject has an improvement assessment of $50,803 or $35.13 per square foot of living area, which falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record on an overall basis but above the range on a square foot basis. The subject's higher improvement assessment per square foot is logical when considering economies of scale due to subject's smaller dwelling size and the comparables lack of central air conditioning, a feature of the subject. Based on this evidence and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not prove by clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
