

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Michael Feducik
DOCKET NO.: 19-05979.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-28-110-029

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Michael Feducik, the appellant, by attorney Brian S. Maher of Weis, DuBrock, Doody & Maher in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,733
IMPR.: $33,016
TOTAL: $37,749

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of vinyl siding exterior construction with 1,188 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1942 and has a reported effective age of 1961. Features of the home include an unfinished basement and a 616 square foot garage. The property has a 4,800 square foot site and is located in Round Lake Park, Avon Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables, two of which located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with 1.5-story dwellings of vinyl siding exterior construction ranging in size from 1,182 to 1,204 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built from 1926 to 1948 with comparable #2 having a reported effective age of 1945. Each dwelling has an unfinished basement. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $27,296 to $28,331 or from $23.09 to $23.85 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $28,013 or $23.58 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $37,749. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $33,016 or $27.79 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located from .34 of a mile to 1.65 miles from the subject property and within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with 1.5-story dwellings of wood or vinyl siding exterior construction ranging in size from 1,188 or 1,205 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built from 1928 to 1954 with comparables #2 and #3 having reported effective ages of 1957 and 1960, respectively. The comparables each have a basement, one of which has a recreation room, two comparables have central air conditioning, one comparable has a fireplace and each comparable has a garage that ranges in size from 360 to 576 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $34,918 to $35,237 or from $28.98 to $29.66 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains a total of six suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparable #3 and board of review comparable #2 due to their dissimilar locations from the subject. The Board finds the parties' remaining comparables are similar to the subject in location, dwelling size and design. However, the Board finds these comparables have varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject in age and features. Nevertheless, these comparables have improvement assessments that range from $27,992 to $35,237 or from $23.09 to $29.66 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $33,016 or $27.79 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is justified. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement is inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
