

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Renyuan Fu
DOCKET NO.: 19-08637.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-23-401-008

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Renyuan Fu, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $35,976
IMPR.: $143,577
TOTAL: $179,553

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of brick exterior construction with 3,630 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1998 and is approximately 21 years old. Features of the home include a walkout basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a 792 square foot garage. The property has an approximately 40,364 square foot site¹ and is located in Long Grove, Ela Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. The comparables are located from 0.34 to 0.78 of a mile from the subject property and within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story homes of wood siding exterior construction ranging in size from 3,652 to 4,123 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 29 to 31 years old. Each home has a basement, central air conditioning, one to three fireplaces, and a garage ranging in size from 736 to 944 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $121,637 to $138,628 or from $33.31 to $34.62 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $123,165 or $33.93 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $179,553. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $143,577 or $39.55 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on five equity comparables. The comparables are located from 0.16 to 0.78 of a mile from the subject property and within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story homes of brick or brick and wood siding exterior construction ranging in size from 3,385 to 4,303 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built from 1990 to 2005. Each home has a basement, two of which are walkout basements, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a garage ranging in size from 660 to 1,270 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $129,208 to $167,761 or from $37.63 to $38.99 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains a total of nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparable #3 and the board of review's comparables #3 and #4, which have much larger homes than the subject dwelling.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #1, #2, and #4 as well as the board of review's comparables #1, #2, and #5, which are relatively similar to the subject in dwelling size, age, location, and features. These comparables have improvement assessments that range from $121,637 to $148,425 or from $33.31 to $38.17 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $143,577 or $39.55 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in terms of total improvement assessment and above the range on a per square foot basis, which is logical because the subject is a slightly smaller dwelling than the best comparables. The Board notes the principle of the economies of scale which generally provides that if all other things are equal, as the size of a property increases, the per unit value decreases. In contrast, as the size of a property decreases, the per unit value increases.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
