

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Harry Gottlieb
DOCKET NO.: 19-20697.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-34-415-014-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Harry Gottlieb, the appellant, by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,200
IMPR.: $74,445
TOTAL: $87,645

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 3,545 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 100 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished partial basement, central air conditioning and a 2-car detached garage.<sup>1</sup> The property has an 8,800 square foot site and is located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five comparable properties that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are two-story dwellings of stucco, frame or masonry exterior construction that range in size from 2,766 to 3,500 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 81 to 116 years old. Two of the comparables have unfinished full or partial basements, four comparables have central air conditioning, four comparables each have either one or two fireplaces and two comparables have a 2-car garage.<sup>2</sup> The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $49,189 to $76,285 or from $16.11 to $21.80 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $65,617 or $18.51 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" that reflected the incorrect assessment for the subject property. Based on the copy of the board of review final decision submitted by the appellant, the subject has a total assessment of $92,967 and an improvement assessment of $79,767 or $22.50 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparable properties that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. Comparables #1, #2 and #3 are also located on the same block as the subject. The comparables are two-story dwellings of stucco or masonry exterior construction that range in size from 2,674 to 3,566 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 90 to 105 years old and have full or partial basements, two of which have finished area. Three of the comparables have central air conditioning, each comparable has either one or three fireplaces and each comparable has from a 1-car to a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $57,314 to $73,709 or from $19.27 to $21.71 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The parties submitted a total of nine comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2 and #3, due to their lack of a basement foundation and garage when compared to the subject. In addition, comparables #2 and #3 are significantly smaller than the subject. The Board also gives less weight to the board of review's comparables #3 and #4, due to their considerably smaller size when compared to the subject. The Board finds the parties' remaining comparables are similar to the subject in location, style, size and many features. However, two of the parties' best comparables lack central air conditioning, unlike the subject. Nevertheless, the best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $64,441 to $76,285 or from $20.29 to $21.80 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $79,767 or $22.50 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is not supported and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
