

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dimitri Semizarov
DOCKET NO.: 19-21193.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-11-412-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dimitri Semizarov, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,000
IMPR.: $56,011
TOTAL: $65,011

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story, single family dwelling of masonry construction containing 2,112 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1929. Features of the dwelling include a full finished basement, two and one-half baths, one fireplace, and a two-car garage. The property has a 6,000 square foot site in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is a Class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. Also, the appellant states that the subject was converted in 2013 from a four to a three bedroom, single family home. The appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $53,943.

The appellant also contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four sale comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $65,011. The subject has a total improvement assessment of $56,011 or $26.52 per square foot of living area. In support of the assessment, the board of review submitted four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant did not submit any supporting evidence showing that the subject contains three bedrooms, including but not limited to a building sketch, contractor's statement, or appraisal. Therefore, the Board finds that the subject contains four bedrooms.

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #4 and the board of review's comparables #1, #2, and #4. These comparables are similar in location, size, baths, and age. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $19.71 to $28.52 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $26.52 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The appellant also contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant submitted four sale comparables. However, three of the four sale comparables sold in 2004, 2013, and 2015 which are far too removed and not reflective of the subject's market value as of the appeal's January 1, 2019 lien date. The appellant's one remaining sale comparable does not constitute a range. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant failed to meet his burden and reduction is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appellant's comparables #3 and #4 and the board of review's comparable #1. These comparables are similar in location, size, stories, and age. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $135.70 to $142.79 per square foot of building area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $143.53 per square foot of living area including land, which is above the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
