

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Andrius Boharevicius
DOCKET NO.: 19-22183.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 23-11-301-006-1008

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Andrius Boharevicius, the appellant(s), by attorney Jessica Hill-Magiera, Attorney at Law in Lake Zurich; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,742
IMPR.: $4,748
TOTAL: $9,490

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit within a 45-year-old, multi-story, masonry, 192-unit condominium complex located in Palos Hills, Palos Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this appellant submitted copies of multiple listing service (MLS) printout and settlement statement which disclosed the purchase of the subject on October 23, 2018 for $94,900. The statement lists commissions paid to a real estate company. The petition discloses that the transfer was not between related parties, the property was sold by owner, that the property was advertised for sale for six months in the local paper and that the sale was not due to a foreclosure or for a contract for deed. In addition, the appellant submitted sales of seven comparables located in the subject's complex. These units sold from July 2018 to June 2019 for prices ranging from $62,000 to $93,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $13,648. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $136,480 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted the sales of 18 units located within the subject's complex that sold for a total value of $1,263,393. This value was divided by percentage of ownership of the units sold of 9.21% to arrive at a value for the building of $13,717,622. This sale was also included in the appellant's evidence.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in October 2018 for a price of $94,900. The appellant submitted evidence of the sale of the subject and that it was offered on the open market. The board of review did not challenge the sale or the arm's-length nature of the transaction and included this sale in its evidence. Based on this record the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $94,900 as of the lien date. Since market value has been determined, the level of assessment of 10% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance shall apply and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
