

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Andrius Boharevicius
DOCKET NO.: 19-22184.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 23-02-207-025-1004

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Andrius Boharevicius, the appellant(s), by attorney Jessica Hill-Magiera, Attorney at Law in Lake Zurich; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,019
IMPR.: $14,305
TOTAL: $16,324

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit located in Hickory Hills, Palos Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant included sales information on four units that sold from August 2018 to July 2019 for prices ranging from $81,000 to $128,000. These comparables are located in the subject's town of Hickory Hills, but in a different neighborhood code. The petition discloses the subject is not owner-occupied.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $16,324. The subject's assessment reflects a market value for all the appealed units of $163,240 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted the sales of four units that sold from December 2018 to August 2019 for prices ranging from $162,900 to $173,000. These comparables are located in the subject's town of Hickory Hills, but in a different neighborhood code.

In rebuttal, the appellant submitted a letter asserting that the board of review's comparables were not similar to the subject in age and included a grid of all the comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be all the sales submitted by the parties. These units sold from August 2018 to July 2019 for prices ranging from $81,000 to $173,000. The subject's current assessment reflects a market value of $163,240 which is within the values as established by the sales. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant did not show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued, and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
