

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kenneth Ali
DOCKET NO.: 19-22759.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-08-309-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kenneth Ali, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $30,912
IMPR.: $134,773
TOTAL: $165,685

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 3,998 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 16 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, four fireplaces and a 2.5-car garage. The property has a 14,720 square foot site located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on nine equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The Board finds that the appellant's comparable #7 is the same property as its comparable #1. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,902 to 4,489 square feet of living area. The comparables range in age from 19 to 22 years old. Each comparable has a partial or a full basement with six having finished area. Each comparable has central air conditioning, one to three fireplaces and a 2-car to a 3.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $119,346 to $139,553 or from $30.59 to $31.81 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $124,538 or $31.15 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $165,685. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $134,773 or $33.71 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The Board finds that the board of review's comparable #4 is the same property as its comparable #1. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,965 to 4,127 square feet of living area. The comparables are either 12 or 15 years old. Each comparable has a full basement with two having finished area. Each comparable has central air conditioning, two to four fireplaces and a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $138,537 to $178,459 or from $34.94 to $43.24 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted thirteen suggested comparables for the Board's consideration, but only eleven comparables are included in the Board's analysis since the board of review comparables since two comparables were submitted twice. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, #3, #5, #8 and #9 and the board of review's comparables #2 and #3 due to their finished basement areas when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables as they are most similar to the subject property in location, design, exterior construction, age, dwelling size, unfinished basement and most features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $30.75 to $34.94 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $33.71 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
