

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: 908 Reba, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 19-24064.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 11-19-318-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are 908 Reba, LLC, the appellant(s), by attorney Jennifer Kanik, of the Law Offices of Terrence Kennedy Jr. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $36,278
IMPR.: $216,312
TOTAL: $252,590

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story, 31-unit apartment building of masonry construction with 29,232 square feet of living area. The building was constructed in 1924. The property has a 18,139 square foot site and is located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is Class 3-15 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables. The appellant requested the subject's total assessment be reduced to $203,776.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $295,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $258,722 or $8.85 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review did not submit any evidence.

At hearing, the appellant's attorney rested on the submitted evidence. The board of review analyst distinguished the appellant's equity evidence based on parking spaces. The appellant reaffirmed request for an assessment reduction.

Conclusion of Law

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1, #2 and #5. These comparables ranged in improvement assessment of $5.95 to $8.07 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $8.85 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. These comparables are all three-story, class 3-15 properties, apartment buildings of masonry construction, similar living area square footage, age, and amenities. Accordingly, the Board determines that the appellant has established by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property was inequitably assessed, and a reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
