

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Connie Fabbrini
DOCKET NO.: 19-24272.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-34-315-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Connie Fabbrini, the appellant(s), by attorney Omar Banna, of Mayster & Chaimson, Ltd in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,250
IMPR.: $70,002
TOTAL: $81,252

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story single-family dwelling of frame construction with 2,841 square feet of living area. The dwelling was 153 years of age. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 7,500 square foot site and is located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's total assessment to $75,932.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing that the total assessment for the subject is $90,713. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $79,463 or $27.97 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. They are located within the same subarea as the subject with two comparables located within a ¼ mile of the subject. The improvements were between 98 and 142 years of age and ranged in size from 2,302 to 3,566 square feet of living area and in assessment from $29.53 to $33.06 per square foot.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proven by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's equity comparables #2, #3 and #4. These equity comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $22.53 to $25.56 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $27.97 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant has proven, with clear and convincing evidence, that the subject is inequitably assessed, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
