

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Christine Michael
DOCKET NO.: 19-25522.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-29-422-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Christine Michael, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $21,140
IMPR.: $109,652
TOTAL: $130,792

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 4,686 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 12 years old. Features of the home include a full finished basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a 2-car garage. The property has a 12,080 square foot site and is located in Wilmette, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on eight equity comparables with the same classification and neighborhood codes as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of frame, masonry, stucco, or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,870 to 4,944 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 1 to 46 years old. Each comparable has partial or full basement with three having finished area, from one to three fireplaces, and a garage ranging from a 2-car to a 3.5-car garage. Based upon the response in the appellant's grid analysis, the Board is unable to determine if the comparables have air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $65,298 to $99,033 or from $13.21 to $22.86 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $90,841 or $19.39 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $130,792. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $109,652 or $23.40 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables with the same classification and neighborhood codes as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 4,185 to 4,329 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 7 to 15 years old and each has a full finished basement. Each comparable has central air conditioning, two or three fireplaces, and a garage ranging from a 2-car to a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $105,368 to $113,543 or from $24.34 to $26.67 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted twelve suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. When compared to the subject, the Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1 and #3 through #8 due to significant dissimilarities in their ages and/or dwelling sizes when compare to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #2 as well as the board of review comparables. These five comparables are most similar to the subject in location, design, exterior construction, age, foundation and other features. These five comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $99,033 to $113,543 or from $22.69 to $26.67 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $109,652 or $23.40 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables contained in this record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
