

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joe Ruffolo
DOCKET NO.: 19-34251.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-34-200-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joe Ruffolo, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $22,947
IMPR.: $51,504
TOTAL: $74,451

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 4,292 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 19 years old. Features include a full basement with a formal recreation room, central air conditioning, and a three-car garage. The property has a 76,491 square foot site and is located in South Barrington, Barrington Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The taxpayer asserts overvaluation as a basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the taxpayer submitted information about four suggested sales comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $74,451. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $51,504 or $12.00 per square foot of living area. The subject property's assessment reflects a market value of $744,510, land included, or $173.46 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested comparables, and it submitted data about recent sales of two of those suggested comparables.

Conclusions of Law

The taxpayer asserts that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the taxpayer must prove the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Winnebago County Bd. of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1043 (2d Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not warranted.

The Board concludes that the best evidence of the subject's market value is the board of review's comparables one and two, and the appellant's comparables one and four. Like the subject property, these comparables have single-family dwellings of masonry construction with central air conditioning. They are similar in living area square footage to the subject.

These comparables sold between August 10, 2016, and November 1, 2018, for amounts ranging from $109.96 to $200.84 per square foot of living area, land included in the sale price. The subject property's assessment reflects a market value of $744,510, land included, or $173.46 per square foot of living area, which is within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Accordingly, the Board determines that the appellant has failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued. Based on the evidence, the Board therefore finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
