

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: George Demertzis
DOCKET NO.: 19-34652.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-10-103-024-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are George Demertzis, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,250
IMPR.: $24,102
TOTAL: $32,352

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 65-year-old, one-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 2,272 square feet of living area. Features of the home include: a slab foundation, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 30,000 square foot site and is located in Des Plaines, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant supplied information disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $36,218 and an improvement assessment of $27,684 or $12.31 per square foot of living area. The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing a total assessment for the subject of $33,015, an improvement assessment of $25,515 or $11.23 per square foot of living area. However, these figures are incorrect. The appellant provided a copy of the final board of review 2019 assessment decision for the subject (PIN 09-10-103-024-0000). The board of review finalized the assessed valuation for the subject property at $36,218 in 2019, which was the amount provided by the appellant in their appeal. Within the "Board of Review Notes on Appeal," the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables #1 and #2 and the appellant's comparables #1 and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $10.05 to $11.79 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $12.31 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
