

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ann E. Leahy
DOCKET NO.: 19-34947.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-28-407-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ann E. Leahy, the appellant, by attorney Jason W. Newton, of Schoenberg Finkel Beederman Bell Glazer LLC in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,879
IMPR.: $56,587
TOTAL: $59,466

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a one-story, single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 2,393 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 12 years old. Features include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The property has a 9,597 square foot site and is located in South Barrington, Barrington Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The taxpayer asserts overvaluation as a basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the taxpayer submitted information about three suggested sales comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $59,466. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $56,587 or $23.65 per square foot of living area. The subject property's assessment reflects a market value of $594,660, land included, or $248.50 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested sales comparables.

Conclusions of Law

The taxpayer asserts that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the taxpayer must prove the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Winnebago County Bd. of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1043 (2d Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not warranted.

The Board concludes that the best evidence of the subject's market value is the board of review's sales comparables one and three, and the appellant's sales comparables one, two, and three. Like the subject property, these comparables have single-family dwellings of frame and masonry construction with central air conditioning, two-car garages, and three bedrooms. They are similar in living area square footage and age to the subject. All are located within a half-mile of the subject.

These comparables sold between May 22, 2017, and October 23, 2018, for amounts ranging from $208.51 to $318.45 per square foot of living area, land included in the sale price. The subject property's assessment reflects a market value of $635,100, land included, or $248.50 per square foot of living area, which is within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Accordingly, the Board determines that the appellant has failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued. Based on the evidence, the Board therefore finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
