Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) after receiving a decision from the Cook County Board of Review. The instant appeal challenges the assessment for tax year 2019. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the “Board”) finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of 84 condominium units with a 100.00% total ownership interest in the common elements. The property is located in Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject units are all classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether any of the subject units are owner-occupied.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a condominium analysis showing that 14 units in the subject’s building, or 16.67% of ownership in the common elements, sold between June 2016 and August 2018 for an aggregate price of $4,796,500. The aggregate sale price was then divided by the percentage of ownership interest in the common elements of the units sold to arrive at a total market value for the building of $28,779,029. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject’s assessment to $2,722,482 after applying 2018 Illinois Department of Revenue three-year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 9.46%.

The board of review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” disclosing that the total assessment for the subject is $2,832,574. The subject’s assessment reflects a market value of $28,325,740 when applying the 2019 statutory level of assessment for class 2 property of 10.00% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium analysis showing that 20 units in the subject's building, or 23.8095% of ownership in the common elements, sold between February 2016 and May 2019 for an aggregate price of $6,946,000. The aggregate sale price was then divided by the percentage of ownership interest in the common elements of the units sold to arrive at a total market value for the building of $29,173,229.

The intervenors both adopted the evidence submitted by the board of review pursuant to section 1910.99 of the Official Rules of the Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.99.

In rebuttal, the appellant reaffirmed the evidence previously submitted, and submitted a press release from the Illinois Department of Revenue stating that the 2019 Illinois Department of Revenue three-year average median level of assessment for class 2 property was 9.46%.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the value of the property must be proven by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales, or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

“Real property taxes . . . which are authorized by law to be assessed against and levied upon real property shall be assessed against and levied upon each unit and the owner's corresponding percentage of ownership in the common elements as a tract, and not upon the property as a whole.” 765 ILCS 605/10(a).

Initially, the Board finds that the statutory level of assessment for class 2 property found in the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10.00% is applicable in this appeal. The appellant initially provided the Board with the 2018 Illinois Department of Revenue three-year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 9.46%. This figure is not derived from the relevant tax year for the instant appeal of 2019. In rebuttal, the appellant submitted the 2019 Illinois Department of Revenue three-year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 9.28%. The Board finds that this submission constitutes new evidence that is prohibited by section 1910.66(c) of the Official Rules of the Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.66(c). As such, the Board accorded this document no weight in this analysis. Moreover, the appellant has not provided any evidence or argument to justify using either of the Illinois Department of Revenue three-year average median levels of assessment for class 2 property. As such, the Board will use the statutory level of assessment of 10.00%. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395, 401 (1960) (“A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test.”) (citing Crover v. People ex rel. Hanberg, 206 Ill. 464 (1903)).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the board of review's sale comparables with the PINs ending in -1011, -1028, -1056, -1060, and -1074, and the sale comparables with the PINs ending in -1020, -1022, -1023, -1036, -1040, -1041, -1042, -1044, -1047, -1052, and

-1067, which were submitted by both parties. In taking the aggregate sales price of the most similar sales ($5,548,000) and dividing by the total percentage of ownership in the common elements of the units sold (18.8889%), the Board finds that the subject's building has a market value of $29,371,778. The subject's current assessment reflects a market value below the market value established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant has not proven, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the subject is overvalued, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
