Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 78-year-old, residential building with 13 condominium units. The property has a 13,613 square foot site and is located in Hyde Park Township, Cook County.

The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant included sales information on two units within the subject building. Those units sold in April 2017 for prices ranging from $225,000 to $235,000. The appellant deducted 15% from this value for personal property to arrive at an adjusted value of $391,000. This value was divided by the percentage of ownership of these units of 15.66% to arrive at a value for the building of $2,496,807.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $257,877. The subject's assessment reflects a market value for the subject building of $2,578,770 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted the sales of two condominium units. No descriptive information was provided for these sales other than the percentage of ownership of the units. They sold in April 2017 for prices ranging from $225,000 to $235,000. The board of review's sales analysis uses the same sales comparables as the appellant.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be all of the appellant's comparables, and all of the board of review's comparables. These units sold for $460,000. The Board gives no weight to the deduction for personal property as there is no evidence to support this. Dividing the total sale price by the percentage of ownership of this sold unit of 15.66% arrives at a value for the building of $2,908,045. The subject's current assessment reflects a market value of $2,578,770 which is below the value as established by the sales. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant did not show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued, and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
