

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ryan King
DOCKET NO.: 19-36123.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-31-402-031-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ryan King, the appellant(s), by attorney Ellen G. Berkshire, of Verros Berkshire, PC in Oakbrook Terrace; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 13,650
IMPR.: $ 74,812
TOTAL: $ 88,462

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) after receiving a decision from the Cook County Board of Review. The instant appeal challenges the assessment for tax year 2019. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of two improvements. Improvement #1 is a three-story single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 2,400 square feet of living area. Improvement #1 is 130 years old. Features of Improvement #1 include a slab, central air conditioning, and a fireplace. Improvement #2 is a dwelling with 676 square feet of living area. The property's site is 3,000 square feet, and it is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. Improvement #1 is classified as a class 2-06 property, and Improvement #2 is classified as a class 2-02 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether the subject is owner-occupied.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables for Improvement #1.

No evidence was submitted regarding Improvement #2. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $71,922.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing that the total assessment for the subject is $88,462. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $74,812. The individual improvement assessments for Improvement #1 and Improvement #2 were not disclosed.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment for Improvement #1, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables, and one sale comparable. The board of review's evidence also states that the subject was purchased in May 2019 for $1,240,000.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proven by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

Neither party submitted the individual improvement assessments for Improvement #1 and Improvement #2. As such, the Board is unable to determine the improvement assessment per square foot for these two individual improvements, and, consequently, is not able to determine if the subject's improvements are inequitably assessed. Therefore, based on this record, the Board finds the appellant has not proven, with clear and convincing evidence, that the subject is inequitably assessed, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
