

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Teresa Licari
DOCKET NO.: 19-37471.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-14-115-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Teresa Licari, the appellant, by attorney Daniel J. Farley, of the Law Offices of Terrence Kennedy Jr. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,827
IMPR.: $13,434
TOTAL: $16,261

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 95-year-old, two-story, multi-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 2,382 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and a two-car garage. The property has a 6,654 square foot site and is located in Maywood, Proviso Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. Based on this evidence, the appellant is requesting an assessment amount of $12,000.

The appellant requested an extension of time to submit further evidence which was granted. The appellant submitted additional documents in the form of a memorandum outlining a recent sale of the subject property in November 2019 as well as a purchase and sale agreement, mortgage documents, and an equity grid with four comparable properties. Based on the additional evidence, the appellant is requesting an assessment amount of either $5,260 (based on 10% of the sale price) or $13,737 (based on uniformity) which is an amount greater than the originally requested total assessment of $12,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $16,261. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $13,434 or $5.64 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

The matter was set for a hearing before an ALJ on August 25, 2023. On August 25, 2023, however, the parties entered into a written agreement to waive the hearing and have the matter decided on the evidence that had been submitted.

Conclusion of Law

As a preliminary matter, despite the "Recent Sale" box not being checked in Section 2d of the Appeal Form, the appellant submitted evidence regarding a sale of the subject property on November 18, 2019, for $52,600. The Board gives no weight to this sale as it fails to reflect the subject's market value because of conditions placed on the sale. The documentation shows that the seller was the Cook County Land Bank Authority, a public body. The subject was sold "As-Is" and several potentially hazardous conditions were mentioned in the sales agreement. The sale was conditioned on the buyers' agreement to make a good-faith effort to complete the rehabilitation of the property and sell it for owner occupancy within six months of the sale. Under these circumstances, the sale does not reflect the market value of a fee simple interest in the property as of January 1, 2019, valuation date.

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes, "be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law." Ill. Const. art. IX, §4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however, and it is sufficient if the taxing authority achieves a reasonable degree of uniformity. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables #1 and #4 and appellant's comparables #1 and #4. These comparables ranged in improvement assessment of $4.33 to $6.09 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $5.64 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. These comparables were given more weight based on their design, size, amenities and/or location. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.

Clerk of the Property Tax Appeal Board

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code provides in part:

"If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel after the deadline for filing complaints with the Board of Review or after adjournment of the session of the Board of Review at which assessments for the subsequent year or years of the same general assessment period, as provided in Sections 9-125 through 9-225, are being considered, the taxpayer may, within 30 days after the date of written notice of the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision, appeal the assessment for such subsequent year or years directly to the Property Tax Appeal Board."

In order to comply with the above provision, YOU MUST FILE A PETITION AND EVIDENCE WITH THE PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD WITHIN 30 DAYS OF THE DATE OF THE ENCLOSED DECISION IN ORDER TO APPEAL THE ASSESSMENT OF THE PROPERTY FOR THE SUBSEQUENT YEAR OR YEARS. A separate petition and evidence must be filed for each of the remaining years of the general assessment period.

Based upon the issuance of a lowered assessment by the Property Tax Appeal Board, the refund of paid property taxes is the responsibility of your County Treasurer. Please contact that office with any questions you may have regarding the refund of paid property taxes.
