

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tony Kim
DOCKET NO.: 19-37974.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-06-103-077-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tony Kim, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,956
IMPR.: $49,126
TOTAL: $65,082

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an owner-occupied two-story dwelling with 3,445 square feet of living area of frame and masonry construction. The dwelling was constructed in 1989. Features include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a three-car garage. The property has a 13,297 square foot site and is located in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. The appellant submitted information on four sales comparables. The sales occurred from June 2017 to August 2019 for prices ranging from $425,500 to $595,500 or $161.42 to $181.04 per square foot, including land. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested an assessment of $59,218.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $65,082 which reflects a market value of $650,820 or $188.92 per square foot of living area, including land.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales. The board of review did not disclose the proximity of the comparables to the subject but indicated two of the sales comparables had the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The sales occurred from August 2017 to March 2019 for prices ranging from $671,000 to $790,000 or $217.74 to $225.74 per square foot, including land.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales, or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be appellant comparable sales #1, #2, and #3 and board of review comparable sale #4. These comparables were given greater weight due to their similar size relative to the subject. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $168.30 to $225.74 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $188.92 per square foot of living area, including land, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
