

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Elizabeth Straka
DOCKET NO.: 19-40679.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-05-104-015-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Elizabeth Straka, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,000
IMPR.: $20,932
TOTAL: $29,932

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story class dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,756 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 80 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a 1-car garage. The property has a 5,625 square foot site located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's petition disclosed the subject property is an owner-occupied residence. The Board takes notice that the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 18-34438.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the subject's assessment to $29,932 based on equity and the weight of the evidence in that record.

For this 2019 tax year appeal, the appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables have varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject in age, dwelling size and other features. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $18,525 to $23,609 or from $10.65 to $15.58 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $23,776 or $13.54 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $38,237. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,237 or $16.65 per square foot of living area. The board of review also reported that 2018 was the beginning of the subject's general assessment cycle. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables have varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject in age, dwelling size and other features. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $28,556 to $37,322 or from $16.65 to $19.34 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The Board finds the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2018 tax year under Docket Number 18-34438.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $29,932 based on the equity evidence in the record. The Board further finds Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code is controlling in this appeal. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review. (35 ILCS 200/16-185)

Therefore, the Board finds that the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the 2019 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The Board finds the evidence in the record indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence and that the 2018 and 2019 tax years are within the same general assessment period for Jefferson Township. The record contains no evidence indicating that the subject property sold in an arms-length transaction establishing a different fair cash value or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board was reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision of $29,932.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
