Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of six condominium units, in an approximately 15-year-old residential condominium building. There are six PINs for the subject property, all of which are the subject of this appeal. The property has a 6,317 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal, specifically based on recent sales. The appellant submitted a legal brief, three Cook County Recorder of Deeds property history printout, and a condominium analysis based on sales of units within the building to support their argument. These sales occurred between 2017 and 2018.

Those sales are as follows: PIN 16-01-217-047-1002 sold in 2017 for total of $403,000 and consisted of 17.70% ownership; PIN 16-01-217-047-1003 sold in 2017 for a total of $300,000 and consisted of 15.30% ownership; PIN 16-01-217-047-1006 sold in 2017 for $320,000 and consisted of 17.00% ownership.

The appellant added the sales figures from the sales of the three PINs to reach a total sales amount of $1,033,000. The appellant then determined that 10% of the total sales ($103,300) should be deducted for personal property and found an adjusted total sales figure of $929,700. The appellant then divided that figure by the total amount of ownership of the sold PINs (50.00%) to reach an estimated fair market value of the entire building of $1,859,400. The appellant then applied a 10% level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance to reach a total assessed value of $185,940. Based on this, the appellant requested a reduction of total assessment to $185,940.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $207,954. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $2,079,540 when applying the 10% level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on comparable sales utilizing a condominium analysis consisting of four sales of condominium units within the building. These sales occurred between 2017 and 2019.

Those sales are as follows: PIN 16-01-217-047-1001 sold in 2019 for $410,000 and consisted of 17.70% ownership; PIN 16-01-217-047-1002 sold in 2017 for $403,000 and consisted of 17.70% ownership; PIN 16-01-217-047-1003 sold in 2018 for $300,000 and consisted of 15.30% ownership; PIN 16-01-217-047-1006 sold in 2017 for $320,000 and consisted of 17.00% ownership.

The board of review added the sales figures from the sales of the four PINs to reach a total sales amount of $1,433,000. The board of review did not subtract any amount for personal property. The appellant then divided that figure by the total amount of ownership of the sold PINs (67.70%) to reach an estimated fair market value of the entire building of $2,116,691. The appellant then applied a 10% level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance to reach a total assessed value of $211,669. The board of review requested that the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

“Real property taxes . . . which are authorized by law to be assessed against and levied upon real property shall be assessed against and levied upon each unit and the owner’s corresponding percentage of ownership in the common elements as a tract, and not upon the property as a whole.” 765 ILCS 605/10(a).

There are two differences between the appellant’s condominium analysis and the board of review’s condominium analysis. The appellant used three sales and included a 10% reduction of total sales price for personal property. The board of review used four sales and did not include a 10% reduction of total sales price for personal property.

The board gives no weight to the appellant’s request for a reduction of the sales price of 10% based on personal property. The appellant did not provide sufficient evidence detailing the personal property purported to be part the sales or supply any statutory or caselaw authority that this reduction must be given.

Furthermore, the Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the board of review’s condominium analysis which used the same three sales as the appellant with one additional sale from the lien year. The board of review’s calculations determined an estimated market value of $2,116,691, or $211,669 when applying the 10% level of assessment for a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The subject’s 2019 assessment is $207,954, which is lower than to the than the best evidence in this record, that being the board of review’s condominium analysis. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject’s assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
