

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mary-Kay Crossen & Bob Fisher
DOCKET NO.: 19-44467.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-31-401-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mary-Kay Crossen & Bob Fisher, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,650
IMPR.: $41,042
TOTAL: $54,692

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 128-year-old, two-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction with 1,428 square feet of living area. The property has a 3,000 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. Features of the building include two full bathrooms and central air conditioning. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The record reflects that the subject property is not owner-occupied.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four comparable sales. The appellant also contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on seven equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" erroneously disclosing the total assessment for the subject as $59,197. Other evidence showed that the subject's total assessment was $63,141 which reflects a market value of $631,410 or $442.16 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the 10% Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $49,491 or $34.66 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparable properties and zero sales comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appellant's comparables #2, #3 and #4. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $318.65 to $383.77 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $442.16 per square foot of living area, including land, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment based on the overvaluation argument is justified. Since market value has been determined, the Board finds that the subject is now fairly and equitably assessed. See Central Nursing Realty, LLC v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 2020 IL App (1st) 180994, ¶¶ 34-36.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
