Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

Appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of three separate PINS. The property is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

Appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of its inequity argument, appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparables. Each of the comparable properties were improved with a two-story residence of masonry construction. They ranged in living area square footage between 3,150 and 3,987 and in assessment between $30.43 and $54.72 per square foot of living area. Appellant's grid analysis combines information for all three PINs for the subject property into one and indicates the subject property has a total land square footage of 3,915, a living area square footage of 3,352 and an assessment of $70.60 per square foot of living area.

Appellant also submitted a copy of the board of review's written decision reflecting a final assessment for the subject property for PIN ending in -017-0000 of $194,834, for PIN ending in -018-0000 of $194,081, and for PIN ending in -018-0000 of $6,405. Based on this evidence, appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment for PIN ending in -017-0000 to $138,562, for PIN ending in -018-0000 to $138,562, and for PIN ending in -019-0000 to $6,405, for a total assessment of $283,529.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject with PIN ending in -017-0000 of $194,834 and an improvement assessment of $163,404, or $35.30 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested comparables. Each were improved with a two-story residence of masonry construction. They ranged in living area square footage between 3,618 and 4,062 and in assessment between $47.38 and $60.35 per square foot of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds none of the evidence of assessment equity submitted by the parties to be sufficient for the Board to determine the best evidence. The board of review only addresses one of the three PINS in its grid analysis and appellant combines information for all three PINs into one in its grid analysis. Without information that includes living area square footage for each PIN and corresponding comparables, the Board cannot make a determination of appellant's assessment inequity contention. Based on this record, the Board finds appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
