

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Elizabeth Livieratos
DOCKET NO.: 19-49987.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-02-416-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Elizabeth Livieratos, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,075
IMPR.: $19,808
TOTAL: $24,883

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story, single-family dwelling of frame construction with 1,007 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 59 years old. Features include a slab foundation, two bedrooms, and one full bathroom. The property has a 3,500 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The taxpayer asserts overvaluation as a basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the taxpayer submitted information on four suggested sales comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $24,883. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $19,808 or $19.67 per square foot of living area. The subject property's assessment reflects a market value of $248,830, land included, or $247.10 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested sales comparables.

Conclusions of Law

The taxpayer asserts that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the taxpayer must prove the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Winnebago County Bd. of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1043 (2d Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not warranted.

The Board concludes that the best evidence of the subject's market value is the board of review's sales comparable two, and the appellant's sales comparables one and three. Like the subject property, these comparables have one or 1.5-story, single-family dwellings. The living areas of the dwellings on these comparables are similar in size to that of the subject dwelling. Each is within a quarter mile of the subject.

These comparables sold between April 24, 2017, and March 1, 2018, for amounts ranging from $194.55 to $416.67 per square foot of living area, land included in the sale price. The subject property's assessment reflects a market value of $248,830, land included, or $247.10 per square foot of living area, which is within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Accordingly, the Board determines that the appellant has failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued. Based on the evidence, the Board therefore finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
