

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Judy Chanan
DOCKET NO.: 19-50036.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 29-31-402-049-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Judy Chanan, the appellant, by attorney Mary Kate Gorman, Attorney at Law in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,812
IMPR.: $11,538
TOTAL: $14,350

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a multi-level, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 1,572 square feet of living area. The building was 76 years old. Features include a partial basement with a formal recreation room, a one-car garage, and central air conditioning. The property has a 7,500 square foot site and is located in Homewood, Thornton Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts assessment inequity as a basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three suggested equity comparables. The evidence that the appellant submitted showed that the subject's total assessment was $14,350 and its improvement assessment was $11,538, or $7.34 per square foot of living area.

The board of review did not submit any evidence despite moving for and receiving an extension of time from the Board to submit its evidence. Accordingly, on September 2, 2021, the Board entered an order finding that the board of review was in default.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however, and it is sufficient if the taxing authority achieves a reasonable degree of uniformity. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The only evidence of assessment equity is the appellant's suggested comparables one, two, and three. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $5.65 to $7.94 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $7.34 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by these comparables. In fact, the best of these comparables is comparable three. Like the subject property, this comparable has a multi-level, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with a partial recreation room and central air conditioning. This comparable's dwelling is very similar to the subject in living area size. The improvement assessment for comparable three was $7.94 per square foot, which is higher than the subject's improvement assessment. Under these circumstances, the appellant did not show by clear and convincing evidence that the subject was inequitably assessed. Therefore, a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
