

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: 2140 North Racine Condominium Assoc
DOCKET NO.: 19-51712.001-R-1 through 19-51712.003-R-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are 2140 North Racine Condominium Assoc, the appellant(s), by attorney Nicholas Jordan, of Worsek & Vihon in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
19-51712.001-R-1	14-32-127-049-1001	16,791	76,763	$93,554
19-51712.002-R-1	14-32-127-049-1002	7,787	35,598	$43,385
19-51712.003-R-1	14-32-127-049-1003	9,620	43,978	$53,598

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a seven-year-old residential building with three condominium units. The property has a 3,109 square foot site and is located in North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on ten equity comparables. Those properties are all class 2-11 residential apartment buildings that range in improvement assessment from $17,694 to $38,833 per unit.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $190,537. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $1,905,370. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted limited information for the subject building.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b).

The Board finds the appellant failed to submit properties comparable to the subject. The appellant's comparables are multi-family buildings in which there is one owner, and the building is sold and assessed as a whole. In comparison, the subject units are individually owned and can be sold independently of the whole building. This characteristic is significantly different than the properties submitted by the appellant and, therefore, not comparable. Moreover, the appellant failed to provide detailed information on each unit. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's improvements is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
