

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Josh Robbins
DOCKET NO.: 19-53455.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 30-06-300-056-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Josh Robbins, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,965
IMPR.: $6,099
TOTAL: $8,064

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 5,240 square foot parcel of land improved with a 50-year-old, multi-level, masonry, single-family dwelling containing 1,008 square feet of building area. The property is located in Burnham, Thornton Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted data on four suggested sales comparables. These comparables are described as multi-level, frame and masonry, single-family dwellings. They contain from 980 to 1,170 square feet of building area and sold from March 2017 to November 2018 for prices ranging from $44.02 to $66.33 per square foot of building area. The petition discloses that the subject is not an owner-occupied residence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's total assessment of $8,860 which reflects a market value of $88,600 or $87.90 per square foot of building area using when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of the current assessment, the board of review submitted sales data on four comparables. These comparables are described as multi-level, frame and masonry, single-family dwellings. They contain from 1,120 to 1,173 square feet of building area and sold from August 2016 to August 2019 for prices ranging from $1 to $113.38 per square foot of building area.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds that the best comparables to reflect the subject's market value be the appellant's comparables and the board of review's comparable #1. These properties sold from March 2017 to November 2018 for prices ranging from $44.02 to $67.25 per square foot of building area. The remaining comparables were given less weight due to differences in location. In comparison, the subject's assessment reflects a market value of $87.90 per square foot of building area which is above the range of these comparables. The Board takes judicial notice of the previous year's appeal and finds that the subject's market value has not decreased from that year to the current year. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant has proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject was overvalued, and a reduction to the value found in the 2018 appeal is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
