PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ibrahim Shaban, the appellant(s), by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

19-53996.001-R-1	19-32-117-014-0000	1,845	7,102	$8,947
19-53996.002-R-1	19-32-117-015-0000	2,660	7,102	$9,762

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 67-year-old, one-and-a-half-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 1,723 square feet of living area. Features of the home include two full bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The property has a 3,690 square foot site located in Burbank, Stickney Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables. They were improved with a one-and-a-half-story dwelling of frame construction. In Section II of the appeal form, the appellant stated that the subject is owner-occupied. The appellant also submitted a copy of the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision reflecting a total assessment for the subject property under docket numbers 17-26788.001-R-1 of $7,927 and 17-26788.002-R-1 of $8,742. Based on this evidence, the appellant requests a total assessment for the subject property of $16,669.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject ending in PIN#: ending in -014 of $8,653 with an improvement assessment of $6,624. The assessment for PIN#: ending in -015 was not provided. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables. Each were improved with a one-and-a-half-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2017 tax year should be carried forward to the 2019 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2017 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2017 tax year. The record further indicates that 2017 and 2019 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction during the assessment period or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. The board of review did not object to the subject's occupancy. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
