

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Doug Black
DOCKET NO.: 19-54965.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-05-413-080-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Doug Black, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss of Schiller Law P.C. in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,723
IMPR.: $57,560
TOTAL: $61,283

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2019 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story rowhouse of masonry construction containing 2,649 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 19 years old. Features of the property include a slab foundation, central air conditioning, 2½ bathrooms, and a two-car garage. The property has a 1,095 square foot site located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2018 tax year should be carried forward to the 2019 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior tax year under Docket No. 18-

47354.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the total assessment of the subject property to $61,283 based on an agreement by the parties. The appellant's attorney asserted that tax years 2018 and 2019 are within the same general assessment period.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $67,344. The subject has an improvement assessment of $63,621 or $24.02 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that had improvement assessments ranging from $47,656 to $63,598 or from $21.10 to $27.28 per square foot of living area.

The board of review also indicated that 2018 was the first year of the general assessment cycle for the subject property and that the county assessment officials did not apply a township equalization factor for the 2019 tax year.

In rebuttal the appellant's counsel reiterated that the 2019 appeal was a "Rollover Complaint" from the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision for the tax year 2018. The appellant submitted a copy of the decision issued by the Property Tax Appeal Board pertaining to the subject property in Docket No. 18-47354.001-R-1 reducing the total assessment to $61,283. The appellant requested that the assessment established in the 2018 decision be "rolled over" to the 2019 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2018 tax year should be carried forward to the 2019 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2018 tax year should be carried forward to the 2019 tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2018 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that tax years 2018 and 2019 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. The record also disclosed that no township equalization factor was applied in 2019. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior tax year's decision.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
