

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dante Tisci
DOCKET NO.: 20-02532.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-04-201-018

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dante Tisci, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $31,168
IMPR.: $111,907
TOTAL: $143,075

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of brick and wood siding exterior construction with 3,155 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 2005 and is approximately 15 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a 504 square foot garage. The property has an approximately 14,100 square foot site and is located in Hawthorn Woods, Ela Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity, with respect to the improvement assessment, as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of wood siding exterior construction that range in size from 3,244 to 3,448 square feet of living area and are either 13 or 15 years old. Each comparable has an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a garage ranging in size from 420 to 530 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $103,513 to $115,217 or from $31.49 to $33.42 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $102,695 or $32.55 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $143,075. The subject has an improvement assessment of $111,907 or $35.47 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of brick, wood siding or brick and wood siding exterior construction that range in size from 3,127 to 3,581 square feet of living area. The homes were built from 2005 to 2008. Each comparable has an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a garage ranging in size from 462 to 690 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $114,738 to $128,954 or from $35.78 to $36.69 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments, for the assessment year in question, of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparable #4 along with board of review comparable #3 which are less similar in dwelling size to the subject than other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #1, #2 and #3 and board of review comparables #1, #2, #4 and #5 which are more similar to the subject in location, age, design, dwelling size and other features. These comparables have improvement assessments that range from $103,513 to $117,965 or from $31.49 to $36.69 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $111,907 or $35.47 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex

Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which, appears to exist on the basis of the evidence in this record.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
