

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ryan Phipps
DOCKET NO.: 20-21672.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-05-413-113-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ryan Phipps, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,154
IMPR.: $38,779
TOTAL: $42,933

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a three-story townhome of masonry construction with 1,900 square feet of living area located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The building is 19 years old. Features of the dwelling include a slab foundation, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The subject is located on a 1,222 square foot site. It is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts assessment equity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this contention, he submitted information about four suggested equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $48,011. The board of review also submitted information about four suggested equity comparables.

On November 19, 2024, the Board issued a decision in case number 19-38087.001-R-1, in which it reduced the subject property's assessment for the 2019 tax year from $52,760 to $42,933.

Analysis

The reduced assessment that appellant received for the 2019 tax year because of the Board's decision in case number 19-38087.001-R-1 must remain in effect for the 2020 tax year under section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code, which states in relevant part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

35 ILCS 200/16-185. On November 19, 2024, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject property's assessment for the 2019 tax year. The 2019 and 2020 assessment years are within the same general assessment period for West Chicago Township. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision for the 2019 tax year. The record also contains no evidence that the Board's decision for the 2019 tax year has been reversed or modified upon review. Finally, the appellant's petition for appeal discloses that the subject is owner-occupied. Therefore, under section 16-185, the reduced assessment for 2019 must remain in effect for 2020. This means that the appellant is entitled to a reduction from $48,011 to $42,933.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
