

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Westergreen
DOCKET NO.: 20-25986.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-06-431-007-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are James Westergreen, the appellant(s), by attorney Katherine Amari O'Dell, of Amari & Locallo in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,050
IMPR.: $84,437
TOTAL: $95,487

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 19-year-old, three-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction with 4,511 square feet of living area. Features of the building include a basement apartment, three full bathrooms, a half bathroom, central air conditioning, three fireplaces and a two-car garage. The property has a 3,250 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparables. They were improved with a multi-family dwelling of masonry construction or masonry and frame construction. The improvements ranged: in age from 103 to 117 years; and in size from 4,398 to 4,902 square feet of living area; and in assessment from $12.53 to $14.14 per square foot. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $67,573.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $95,487. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $84,437 or $18.72 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables. They are improved with a three-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction. The improvements ranged: in age from 13 to 24 years; in size from 3,525 to 5,013 square feet of living area; and in assessment from $18.85 to $24.91 per square foot.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board gives little weight the appellant's equity comparables based on a lack of similarity in age. The appellant submitted four equity comparables that were between 103 and 117 years of age. The subject property was 19 years of age on the assessment year in question. As such the Board finds that the appellant failed to meet their burden by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
