

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Pars Ice Cream Co. Inc.
DOCKET NO.: 20-28375.001-I-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-16-410-006-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Pars Ice Cream Co. Inc., the appellant(s), by attorney Jennifer Kanik, of the Law Offices of Terrence Kennedy Jr. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $77,192
IMPR.: $29,900
TOTAL: $107,092

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 59-year-old, one-story, commercial building of masonry construction with 8,341 square feet of building area. The property has a 77,192 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 5-93 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant indicated contention of law, recent appraisal, and assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of the assessment equity argument the appellant submitted information on four class 5-93 equity comparable properties, two of which are located in the same neighborhood code as the subject while the other two were not. The appellant did not provide proximity to the subject for any of the comparables. The improvements were 52 to 70 years old, had from 3,290 to 14,000 square feet of building area, and had improvement assessments of $0.16 to $4.75 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant is seeking a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant did not submit a legal brief in support of the contention of law argument or an appraisal in support of the recent appraisal basis.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $107,092. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,900 or $3.58 per square foot of living area. The board of review did not submit any other evidence.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $0.16 to $4.75 per square foot of building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $3.58 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparable properties in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
