

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Vaidotas Zaicevas
DOCKET NO.: 20-28844.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 22-33-303-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Vaidotas Zaicevas, the appellant, by attorney Eric Feldman, of Eric Feldman & Assoc. P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $10,051
IMPR.: $34,231
TOTAL: $44,282

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 3,282 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 28 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, at least one fireplace¹ and a 3-car garage. The property has an approximately 40,205 square foot site and is located in Lemont, Lemont Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code and from 0.30 to 0.82 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story class 2-78 dwellings of masonry or wood and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,946 to 3,696 square feet of living area. The homes are either 19 or 20 years old. Each comparable has a basement, with two having finished area. Each dwelling has central air conditioning, two fireplaces and either a 2-car or a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24,858 to $34,012 or from $8.44 to $9.32 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $29,275 or $8.92 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $44,282. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $34,231 or $10.43 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code and either ¼ of a mile from the subject or in the subject's subarea. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of class 2-08 or 2-78 with frame and masonry exterior construction that range in size from 2,710 to 3,961 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 21 to 27 years old. Each comparable has a basement, with one having finished area. Each dwelling has central air conditioning, one fireplace and from a 2-car to a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $35,605 to $43,363 or from $10.95 to $13.14 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to appellant comparables #1 and #3 which have finished basement area in contrast to the subject's unfinished basement. The Board gives less weight to board of review comparables #1, #2 and #3 which differ from the subject in dwelling size, classification and/or have a finished basement unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant comparables #2, #4 and #5 along with board of review comparable #4 which are more similar to the subject in location, age, design, dwelling size and most features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24,858 to $37,671 or from $8.44 to $11.18 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $34,231 or $10.43 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
