

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Paper Street Group, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 20-29014.001-R-1 through 20-29014.003-R-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Paper Street Group, LLC, the appellant(s), by attorney Holly Zeilinga, of Worssek & Vihon in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
20-29014.001-R-1	16-12-428-043-1002	1,803	12,418	$ 14,221
20-29014.002-R-1	16-12-428-043-1003	1,843	12,695	$ 14,538
20-29014.003-R-1	16-12-428-043-1004	1,899	13,079	$ 14,978

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) after receiving a decision from the Cook County Board of Review. The instant appeal challenges the assessment for tax year 2020. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of three condominium units with a 84.36% total ownership interest in the common elements. The property is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject units are all classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The subject units are owned by a business entity, and, therefore, they are not owner-occupied.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a condominium analysis showing that one unit in the subject's building, or 27.43% of ownership in the common elements, sold in August 2016 for $127,000. This analysis included one of the subject units. The appellant deducted 10.00% from the aggregate sale price to account for personal property. The aggregate sales price, less the personal property deduction, was then divided by the percentage of ownership interest in the common elements of the unit sold to arrive at a total market value for the building of $416,697. The appellant also submitted a press release from the Illinois Department of Revenue stating that the 2018 Illinois Department of Revenue three-year average median level of assessment for class 2 property was 9.46%, and, based on this press release, requested that the subject's assessment level be set at 9.00% to "be consistent with the Assessor's practice with respect to recent condominium assessments and recent assessment ratios for Class 2 properties as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue." Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $31,637.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing that the total assessment for the subject is $43,737. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $437,370 when applying the 2020 statutory level of assessment for class 2 property of 10.00% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of the subject's current assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the value of the property must be proven by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales, or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

"Real property taxes . . . which are authorized by law to be assessed against and levied upon real property shall be assessed against and levied upon each unit and the owner's corresponding percentage of ownership in the common elements as a tract, and not upon the property as a whole." 765 ILCS 605/10(a).

The Board finds that the sole sale relied upon by the appellant from August 2016 is too remote in time to accurately depict the fair cash value for the subject units as of the relevant lien date of January 1, 2020. As such, the Board accorded no weight to this sale. The appellant did not submit any further evidence as to the subject's market value. Therefore, the Board finds that the appellant has not proven, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the subject is overvalued, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
