

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Debbie Rimmele
DOCKET NO.: 20-31024.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-05-126-007-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Debbie Rimmele, the appellant, by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,502
IMPR.: $56,483
TOTAL: $61,985

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 2,542 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 80 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a 2-car garage. The property has a 6,288 square foot site and is located in Western Springs, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables consist of 2-story class 2-06 dwellings of stucco, masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,474 to 2,705 square feet of living area. The homes are 65 to 107 years old. Five dwellings have central air conditioning, five comparables each have one or two fireplaces, five comparables each have a basement with two having finished area, one comparable has a concrete slab foundation, and each comparable has either a 1-car or 2-car garage. Comparable #3 has a finished attic and comparable #4 has an unfinished attic. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $41,478 to $48,499 or from $16.73 to $17.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $43,061 or $16.94 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $61,985. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $56,483 or $22.22 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within .25 of a mile of the subject and within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables consist of 2-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,216 to 2,413 square feet of living area. The homes are 65 to 90 years old. Each dwelling has one or two fireplaces, an unfinished basement, and either a 1-car or 2-car garage. Three comparables have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $52,668 to $59,590 or from $22.80 to $26.89 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the appellant's comparables #1 through #4, which differ from the subject in foundation, basement finish, attic feature, or central air conditioning amenity. The Board also gives less weight to board of review comparable #1, which lacks central air conditioning, a feature of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #5 and board of review comparables #2, #3, and #4, which are similar to the subject in dwelling size and features. These comparables have improvement assessments that range from $48,499 to $59,590 or from $17.93 to $26.89 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $56,483 or $15.95 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record overall and below the range on a per-square-foot basis. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
