

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jan Leary
DOCKET NO.: 20-31983.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-08-127-031-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jan Leary, the appellant, by attorney Amy C. Floyd, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $19,776
IMPR.: $58,150
TOTAL: $77,926

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 4,120-square-foot parcel of land improved with a 112-year-old, two-story dwelling of frame construction with 2,394 square feet of living area. The property is located in Chicago, in Lake View Township, Cook County, and is classified as 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity is the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. These properties are described as two-story, of frame and masonry, or stucco exterior construction, single-family dwellings. They range in age from 110 to 115; in size from 2,228 to 2,365 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $13.17 to $21.05 per square foot of building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of 77,926. The subject property has an improvement assessment of 58,150 or $ 24.29 per square foot of building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables. These properties are described as two-story, frame, single-family dwellings. They range: in age from 112 to 120; in size from 2,388 to 2,591 square-foot living area; and in improvement assessment from $25.27 to $27.93 per square foot of building area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin. Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin. Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #1 and #4 and the board of review's comparables #1. These comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $13.17 to $25.27 per square foot of building area. The remaining comparables were given less weight due to differences in size. The subject's improvement assessment of $24.29 per square foot of building area is within the range of the best comparables in this record. Therefore, the Board finds that the appellant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property is inequitably assessed, and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
